The parties shall renegotiate the unlawful provisions.

ARTICLE 4 - EMPLOYER POLICIES

To the extent that there is a conflict between the Employer's policy or rules, as they may exist from time to time, and a specific provision of this collective bargaining Agreement, the specific provisions of this collective bargaining agreement shall prevail.

ARTICLE 5 - UNION SECURITY

A. Union Membership or Agency Fee

- i. All present employees, who are members of the Union on the effective date of this Agreement or the date of execution of this Agreement, whichever is later, shall remain members in good standing by the payment of their regular dues as a condition of employment. All employees covered by this Agreement who are not currently members of the Union and all future hires shall within 30 days of hire or within 30 days of the effective date of this Agreement or the date of execution of this Agreement, whichever is later, as a condition of employment, either (a) acquire and maintain membership in the Union in good standing, or (b) tender to the Union an agency fee equal to the amount allowed by law to be charged in lieu of periodic dues uniformly required as a condition of membership in the Union.

- ii. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any employee who is a member of and adheres to established and traditional tenets or teachings of a bona fide religion which holds conscientious objections to joining or financially supporting labor organizations shall not be required to join or financially support the Union as a condition of employment, provided, however, that such employee shall, as a condition of employment, in lieu of payment of periodic dues, pay a sum equal to the service fee provided in section A(1)(b) above to a charity. Upon request by the Union, the Employer shall be required to furnish satisfactory evidence that such deductions are being made and transmitted to the appropriate charity.

- B. The Employer will deduct Union dues and initiation fees or agency fee in amounts certified by the Union as those uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership or allowed by law in lieu of dues upon receipt of a payroll deduction authorization. Such deductions shall be made in each payroll period and shall be remitted to the Union on a monthly basis. The Union shall provide the Employer with at least 30 days' notice of any changes in the dues or agency fees to be deducted.

- B. Union Visitation. A duly authorized representative of the Union shall be permitted reasonable access to the employment premises during working hours for the purposing of ascertaining compliance with this Agreement, investigating grievances, or conducting other Union business as long as it does not disrupt or otherwise interfere with the performance of the work to be performed by employees.

- C. Stewards. The Union shall provide the Employer with the name of a shop steward for each of the Employer's locations for the purpose of conducting routine Union business, e.g., the investigation of grievances and the representation of an employee in the processing of a grievance. The shop steward shall be permitted reasonable time for the performance of such duties provided that it does not interfere with the operations of the Employer or the performance by the shop steward of his/her duties as an employee of the Employer. In the event that there is a required meeting with the Employer, the Union may be represented at the meeting by the shop steward and those individuals representing the union. In the absence of the steward an alternate steward will assume the duties of the steward.

- D. List of Employees. Semi-annually, the Employer shall supply the Union with a list of all bargaining unit employees, showing date of hire and rate of pay.

- E. Access to budget. Annually, the employer shall supply the union with the full organizational budget, including line items for programs and staff. Any union official who receives such budget will sign a confidentiality agreement provided by ALIGN.

ARTICLE 7 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Unless specifically modified by a provision in this contract, the right of the Employer to manage its operations and direct its employees is exclusively vested in the Employer. By way of illustration only, this includes, but is not limited to, the right to hire, classify, compensate, promote, transfer, lay-off, recall, discipline, discharge for just cause, suspend, direct, control, and determine the qualifications of employees; to maintain order and efficiency and to establish and enforce reasonable rules as they may exist from time to time for the conduct of its affairs and the employees. This includes, but is not limited to, absentee tardiness policies, safety standards, workloads, and regulations for employee conduct; to determine the location and extent of the Employer's operations and their commencement, expansion, curtailment or discontinuance; to select, introduce, discontinue, eliminate or change equipment, machinery, processes or services; and to schedule and assign work to the employees.

It is specifically agreed that the enumeration of certain management prerogatives listed above shall not be deemed to exclude other management prerogatives not specifically enumerated above; and it is specifically agreed that any of the rights, powers, or authority vested in the Employer prior to the signing of any Union Agreement are retained by the Employer except those specifically abridged, deleted, or modified by the express terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 8 - NO STRIKE/NO LOCKOUT

The Union agrees that there shall be no strikes during the term of this agreement. The Employer agrees that there shall be no lockout of employees and no employee will be compelled to cross a lawful primary picket line established by another union.

ARTICLE 9 - DISCHARGE AND DISCIPLINE

- A. No employee covered by this Agreement shall be disciplined or discharged except for just cause, with the exception that during his or her probationary period an employee may be disciplined or discharged without regard to just cause and such action shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure contained in this Agreement. Probation shall be for six months from the date of hire or rehire.

- B. Just cause under this Article shall include but shall not be limited to insubordination, use or possession of a controlled substance, violation of the Employers rules, codes or policies, theft of Employer property, false claims submitted to the Employer, and the Employer's judgment, exercised in good faith, that an employee's skill, ability, performance and attendance are unsatisfactory. The Employer endorses the principle of progressive discipline for skill, ability, performance, and attendance issues.

ARTICLE 10 - GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

- A. The purpose of this procedure is to establish and maintain a method of ensuring smooth and uninterrupted operation of ALIGN under the terms of this Agreement; to have present a technique for handling and disposing of differences equitably within the shortest period of time and at the lowest available level.

- B. Grievance. A grievance is defined herein as a complaint, dispute, or controversy, between the Union and the Company, based on facts, circumstances, incidents, or occurrences, which may arise on or after the ratification date but before the expiration of this Agreement, involving a violation of an express term of this Agreement. All grievances shall be settled, determined, adjusted and processed solely and exclusively in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article. Any and all disputes between the parties arising before the ratification date of this Agreement or after the termination date thereof, and/or any and all disputes based on facts, incidents or occurrences taking place prior to the ratification date or subsequent to the termination date, are expressly excluded from coverage and are not in any way encompassed by this Article.

- C. The time periods and limits provided herein shall be calculated as of the postmark, facsimile confirmation or hand delivery date of written correspondence. Such time periods may be extended only by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union. In the absence of such agreement, the time limits shall be mandatory. Accordingly, the failure of the aggrieved employee(s) or the Union to file a grievance initially, to process a grievance in any of the Steps in the grievance procedure thereafter and/or submit the grievance to arbitration in accordance with the express time limits provided herein, shall automatically constitute a complete waiver of the grievance with prejudice. Grievance meetings shall be conducted on the employer's premises on work time. The grievant and steward shall be excused from work to participate in the meeting.

- D. The processing of a grievance beyond Step One (1) of the grievance procedure shall be the sole and exclusive right of the Union.

- E. General Procedures.
 - i. The processing of grievances at any location, insofar as possible, shall be conducted during the hours of employment.
 - ii. The time limits imposed upon either party during any step of this procedure may be extended by mutual agreement and shall be confirmed in writing.
 - iii. With exception to the informal decision at Step One (1), all decisions shall be rendered in writing at each step of the grievance procedure and reasons shall be stated only for the denial of a grievance.

- iv. If a decision at Step One (1) is not appealed to the next stage of the procedure within the time limit specified, the grievance will be deemed to be discontinued and further appeal under this Agreement will be banned.

F. ALIGN and the Union agree to facilitate any investigation which may be required and to make available any and all material and relevant documents, communications, and records concerning the alleged grievances. This obligation does not include an obligation to produce any communications with counsel or between the Executive Director and members of the Board of Directors having to do with administration of the CBA or labor/employee relations, or the business and financial matters deemed to be confidential by the Employer.

G. STEP 1: Informal resolution of grievance among employee, the shop steward if requested by employee, and employee's supervisor, which must happen within ten (10) workdays after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance first occurred or the employee knew or reasonably should have known of the said circumstances. A meeting will be held within ten (10) workdays after receipt of the written grievance. The supervisor shall give his or her written answer within ten (10) workdays following the meeting.

STEP 2: If a resolution is not agreed to in Step One (1) then the written grievance shall be submitted by the Union representative to the executive director within ten (10) workdays after conclusion of Step 1. A meeting will be held within ten (10) workdays after the receipt of the grievance with the employee, executive director and Union representative. The executive director must respond within ten (10) workdays of the meeting. Executive director can ask for more time with the Union's consent. Such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

STEP 3: If the grievance is still not resolved, then either party may by written notice to the other submit the grievance to arbitration no later than twenty (20) workdays after Executive Director provides Step 2 answer. The arbitrator shall be selected pursuant to the Voluntary Labor Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding, except that the arbitrator shall have no authority to add, subtract from, modify, change or disregard any of the provisions of this Agreement or make awards retroactive beyond the date of the grievance. The fees and other charges of the arbitrator shall be divided equally between the parties.

H. Labor-Management Conferences. The Employer and the Union, as evidence of attitude and intent, agree that during the life of this Agreement individuals from both parties, not to exceed two (2) designated by the Union and two (2) designated by the Employer, in writing, by each party to the other, shall meet for a reasonable time not to exceed two hours except by mutual agreement for the purpose of apprising each other of problems, concerns, suggestions, ideas, etc., related to the operations of the Employer, the work force, and client services, all to promote better understanding with the other. Such meetings, not to be held more often than once every third month, except upon the mutual agreement of the parties, shall be scheduled at mutually agreeable times and places. Employees attending such meetings shall lose no pay if such meetings are held during their regularly scheduled work hours. Such meetings shall not be for the purpose of initiating or continuing collective bargaining, nor shall they in any way modify, add to or subtract from the provisions of this Agreement, and such meetings shall be exclusive of the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement, as grievances shall not be considered proper subjects at such meetings. The Union shall not waive its right to grieve and arbitrate issues which are otherwise grievable and arbitrable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement by raising such issues in the Labor Management Conference. A discussion at the Labor Management Conference shall not revive an otherwise time-barred grievance or demand for arbitration or extend the time limits for filing a grievance or demanding arbitration.

- i. Both the Employer and the Union shall make a good faith effort to implement the jointly agreed upon recommendations of the committee and will advise the committee of action taken on its recommendation. It is expressly agreed, however, that recommendations from the committee are non-binding and that disagreements between the parties on subjects properly before the committee shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement. Nor shall the inability of the parties to reach agreement on matters properly before the committee release either party from the no-strike no-lockout provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 11 - WORK SCHEDULE

Scheduling

- A. The Employer's payroll is biweekly and begins every other Monday. The Employer reserves the right to change its payroll period on 30 days' notice to the Union. The normal workweek is five consecutive days. This Article shall not be construed as, and is not a guarantee of, any number of hours of work per day and per week.
- B. Because of the nature of the work of the organization; salaried staff members are likely to work additional hours in the evenings or weekends beyond standard office hours (9:30 am to 6 pm). The Employer shall determine the daily and weekly number of hours and schedule of hours each employee shall work. If required by the operating and programmatic needs of the Employer, the Employer may establish different normal work schedules, hours of work for individual employees outside of the parameters set forth in paragraph A of this Article.

- C. It is recognized and understood that the Employer may require deviations from the employee's regular schedule of work for causes such as, but not limited to, vacation, leaves of absence, evening, weekend and holiday duty, absenteeism, employee request, temporary shortage or personal and emergencies and the needs of the business. No such deviations shall be considered a violation of this Agreement.

- D. The Union and the Employer acknowledge that the employees covered by this Agreement are professional employees, that it is not possible to prescribe precise hours of work and that it sometimes will be necessary for employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without additional compensation. If requested to work overtime, an employee will be expected to do so unless excused for good cause.

- E. If an employee seeks a change in his or her normal work schedule on one or more days, any such change must be requested and approved in advance by the employee's supervisor or the Executive Director. Requests for a flexible schedule, working from home, or telecommuting will be considered for approval by the Employer under its existing policy as it may exist from time to time.

Working from Home

- A. ALIGN will close its office and allow working from home during pandemic-related emergency lockdowns. In addition, ALIGN may close its office and allow working from home when ALIGN concludes it is necessary to safeguard the health and safety of its staff.

- B. In November 2021, non-probationary staff may work from home four days per week.

- C. In December 2021, non-probationary staff may work from home three days per week.
- D. Beginning in January 2022, there shall be a one-year trial period during which non-probationary staff may work from home two days per week, unless there is a bona fide business reason for the staff to be present in the office.
- E. Due to the heightened need for training, collaboration and supervision, probationary staff work from home shall be at the sole discretion of the employee's supervisor.
- F. Work from home days will be regularly scheduled and may be adjusted as needed to meet the needs of the organization. This scheduling will be discussed between the staff member and their supervisor.
- G. During the one-year trial period, the parties shall meet once per quarter, or as needed, to discuss problems, issues, or successes of the trial.
- H. The trial period shall automatically be renewed for a subsequent period of one year unless either party gives more than 30 days' notice. If either party gives 30 days' notice, then the parties shall meet to negotiate in good faith.

Compensatory Time

- A. The Employer will provide exempt employees with compensatory time at straight time for authorized travel or work above a 40-hour workweek, based on hours actually worked. In no event will compensatory time be approved for time in excess of the normal workday (i.e., 8 hours) while on an out-of-town assignment.

- B. Use of compensatory time must be pre-approved. Employees who believe that their workload requires that they use compensatory time must receive prior approval for working those additional hours. Employees will track accumulation and share their computation with management. Employees shall request in writing one (1) week in advance where feasible any claimed compensation time which will be scheduled by mutual consent, not to exceed two (2) consecutive days. Compensatory time may only be taken with the approval of a staff member's supervisor. Management in its sole discretion will decide when an employee's compensatory time may be used, and how much may be used at one time.

- C. Compensatory time shall be used at earliest point possible, within three (3) months of the day it is earned. All compensatory time shall be recorded within the biweekly pay period.

- D. Compensatory time can be denied if the employee fails to record such time and/or fails to obtain advance written supervisory confirmation of the required work. Such leave shall not unreasonably be denied.

- E. Compensatory time is not paid out upon separation of employment.

ARTICLE 12 - JOB OPENINGS

- A. Whenever a vacancy in a bargaining unit position occurs which the Employer determines will be filled, a notice of such vacancy will be posted via email to all staff for a period of ten (10) workdays concurrent with external posting. Employees interested in applying for such posted position shall express their interest in writing to the Executive Director within the posting period and, if there are internal applicants during this period, employees will be interviewed and considered before external candidates. This provision shall in no way limit the Employer's right to seek and employ applicants from any outside source.

- B. The determination as to whether any employee is more or less qualified to fill a vacancy than an applicant for employment with the Employer or as to the relative qualifications, experience and performance between two or more employees, shall rest exclusively with the Employer. If the Employer determines that the relative qualifications, experience and performance between two or more current employees are equal, then the employee with the most seniority shall be given the position. The Employer's determinations shall be final and shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure set forth in Article 10.

ARTICLE 13 - JOB DESCRIPTIONS

- A. A job description for each covered job classification shall be provided within ninety (90) days of the execution of this Agreement to the employee and the Union. Job descriptions are guides to the general duties of the position. The duties listed in the job description are not to be construed as a limitation on the Employer's right to assign work. In the event that the Employer chooses to reassign or substantially alter an employee's assigned duties, encompassing more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the employer's work responsibilities, the employee may request a meeting with the Employer and the Union to confer over the impact of the new duties. If twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the employee's work is outside of the job classification, the employee's job title should reflect both roles.

- B. In the event such change substantially increases the employee's overall workload and/or degree of responsibility, the Union may request an adjustment in the employee's compensation, which the Employer shall discuss in good faith, provided that neither such request nor the Employer's response shall be subject to the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures.

- C. Permanent Employees. Except as provided in Section D below, A permanent employee shall be considered one who is hired for three (3) months or more. All permanent full and part-time employees shall have the opportunity for promotion.
- D. Project Employees.
- i. A project employee shall be considered an employee hired to complete the work of a specific project that has a dedicated and time-limited source of funding, for no greater than 12 months, or for such longer period provided the Union is informed in advance of the hiring.
 - ii. A project employee will be informed upon hiring, in writing, that their position will not be renewed in the instance funding is not renewed. A project employee shall have no seniority rights with respect to layoff and recall.
 - iii. A project employee shall be considered a member of the bargaining unit and will receive all benefits.
- E. Interns. The Employer may hire interns provided the hiring of interns shall not result in the reduction of regular hours of work of unit employees or the layoff of unit Employees. Interns shall not be paid less than $15 per hour but shall not otherwise be covered by any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The Employer may also utilize unpaid interns pursuant to a bona fide for credit course of educational instruction in conjunction with an accredited educational institution. No intern shall have a right to regular employment with the Employer at the conclusion of the internship.

ARTICLE 14 - PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS

does not conduct an annual performance evaluation, an employee may assume that his/her performance is satisfactory unless the employee has received written notice or discipline to the contrary.

- B. Employees shall be permitted to view the contents of their personnel file once a year during regular business hours. The employee must request such inspection from the Executive Director with reasonable time for response. Both parties will ensure reviews will be provided 24 hours in advance and during the actual review the employee has the right to be accompanied by a shop steward during all stages of review.
 - iii. The supervisor will specify clear consequences, structures and timelines for addressing performance deficiencies.
